SAINT MARY'S COLLEGE

Prophetic Communities, Contemplation, and the Common Good

Take time for an intellectual retreat on the beautiful campus of Saint Mary's College! Through illuminative lectures and question and answer time, keynote speaker Sister Simone Campbell, SSS will describe characteristics of prophetic communities and the role of contemplation calling us toward the common good. Additional speakers will provide theological context for the common good and practical illustrations of prophetic communities today. Seminar participants will enjoy meals and fellowship together, prayer experiences, and optional evening activities to nurture mind, body, and spirit. Books written by the speakers will be made available for purchase on-site.
