DEPARTMENT DESCRIPTION

The Department of Modern Languages and Cultures offers Bachelor of Arts in Spanish. It also offers a program for minors in French, Italian, and Spanish. The Department offers General Education language courses at the introductory and intermediate levels. Languages offered within the Sophia Program in liberal learning include Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, and Spanish. French, German, Italian, and Spanish are taught at the introductory and intermediate levels, and Arabic and Mandarin Chinese at the introductory level. Saint Mary’s students may continue the study of Arabic, Chinese, and German beyond the introductory or intermediate level at the University of Notre Dame.

At the introductory and intermediate levels, the program of Modern Languages and Cultures aims to develop the skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing in the target language. Class discussion and activities in the Language Learning Center supplement a thorough foundation in language structure. Cultural aspects of the various countries are emphasized in order to foster the student’s appreciation of cultural diversity and interest in international affairs.

The aim of the advanced courses is twofold: to broaden and deepen the student’s knowledge and appreciation of the literature, culture, and history of the country or countries studied.

Students planning to major in Spanish, or minor in French, Italian, or Spanish, are encouraged to study abroad with one of the affiliated College programs, or under any plan approved by the department. They should see their major advisor about which courses taken abroad will satisfy major or minor requirements.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE PLACEMENT

The language requirement, competency in a modern language, may be fulfilled by completing two semesters of the same language at the appropriate level.

• For students continuing a language they have already studied in high school, the department will advise placement into all levels based on the results of the foreign language placement exam.

• Students who choose to complete their Sophia requirement in Modern Languages by enrolling in the language they studied in high school (at 111-112 level or higher or equivalent) will receive four additional elective credit hours upon successful completion of their two-semester requirement in their first year.

TEACHER PREPARATION

The Modern Languages Department and Cultures in conjunction with the Education Department offers courses leading to state licensing for Spanish.
ADVANCED WRITING PROFICIENCY
The College’s Advanced Writing requirement in the major will be fulfilled by the successful completion of the major portfolio.

SENIOR COMPREHENSIVE
The Senior Comprehensive examination will provide the major with the opportunity to demonstrate knowledge in her field by means of written and oral examination.

ADVANCED PLACEMENT EXEMPTION

Eight college hours in French, German, or Spanish are granted to entering students who receive a grade of four (4) or above on the Advanced Placement Examination or a score of 5 on the International Baccalaureate examination. Entering students scoring 640 or above in French or 630 or above in German and Spanish on the SAT II Modern Language Examination are exempted from the College foreign language requirement but receive no college credit. Entering students scoring 58 or above on the CLEP Modern Language Examination receive four college hours, which satisfy one semester of the language requirement.

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

Saint Mary's is affiliated with the center for Spanish Studies Abroad in Seville, Spain, San Juan, Puerto Rico, and Córdoba, Argentina, for Spanish-language study. The College is also affiliated with the Université Catholique de l'Ouest in Angers, France, for students studying French abroad, Al Akhawayn University in Ifrane, Morocco, for Arabic and/or French, John Cabot University in Rome, Italy, and the University of Nanjing or East China Normal University in Shanghai, China, for Chinese. Students of German may apply for study at the University of Innsbruck, Austria. (See also, pages 57–63.)

Study abroad in an immersion program, including our affiliated programs in Angers, Córdoba, Seville, San Juan, Innsbruck, and Nanjing, requires previous study of the language. Prior study of Italian at Saint Mary's is strongly recommended for students going to Rome. It is possible to study in Innsbruck, Morocco, San Juan, and Shanghai without any previous study of the specific country's language(s) since there are courses offered in English at these programs, although prior study of the country's language(s) is strongly recommended. For Angers, students with intermediate French language skills will take primarily French language courses, but may also take 1–2 content courses at UCO. We strongly recommend that interested students complete a year of college-level intermediate French. Students should consult with their academic advisor in the Modern Languages Department or with the Chair of Modern Languages regarding the specific foreign language study requirement for any of the affiliated programs.

JOHN CABOT UNIVERSITY INCENTIVE CREDIT POLICY

Students who, after completing the second semester of language instruction, enroll in JCU’s IT 201 (3rd semester) will receive two additional elective credits upon successful completion of the course. Students who, after completing the third semester of language instruction, enroll in JCU’s IT 202 (4th semester) will receive one additional elective credit upon successful completion of the course.

ARABIC COURSES (MLAR)

101–102 Introductory Arabic I, II (4, 4)

This two-semester sequence is an introduction to the Arabic language for students with no or limited previous study of the language. The focus is on developing language proficiency in all four skills: speaking, listening, reading, and writing. The sequence also introduces students to Arabic and Islamic cultures. Strongly recommended for prospective students of the Morocco program. Students who have earned high school credits in Arabic enroll in this sequence on the basis of a placement exam.

103–104 Arabic Conversation and Reading I, II (1–2, 1–2)

Designed to develop the ability to hold everyday conversation in Arabic and to introduce the student to Arabic cultures. Strongly recommended for study abroad in Morocco.

This course is an introduction to the history, politics, and cultures of the geopolitical region known as Latin America. This class will explore the region's historical, political, economic, and cultural significance in today's world. Studying the constructs of Latin America from the time of colonial encounters to the movements of independence and their post-colonial legacies, students will examine relevant historical and contemporary issues regarding colonialism, nation-state formation, neoliberalism, and globalization. Immigration and the so-called war on drugs through an interdisciplinary approach that includes films, literature, history, and politics. In addition to considering the processes of democratization, students will analyze sociopolitical phenomena such as dictatorships, the rise of populism, and guerrilla movements, among others. Finally, students will examine the political struggles of ethnic movements to address long-standing gender and racial inequalities.

427 Contemporary Latin American Narrative (3)
A study of selected novels and short stories by the most influential Latin American writers of the 20th century.

429 Latin American Women Writers (3)
Readings of works of women writers from a range of literary texts (novels, short stories, dramas, poems, essays) which raise questions about the female discourse vs. the dominant male canon of Latin American culture.

431 Latin American Poetry (3)
A study of the most important movements, literary trends, and poets from Modernism to the present, including Agustini, Cardenal, Dario, Guilleon, Marti, Mistral, Paz, and Vallejo.

490 Topics in Spanish/Latin American Literature (3)
An intensive study of a literary movement, theme, genre, or author. May be repeated for credit with a different topic.

497 Independent Study (1–3)
Provides qualified advanced students with an opportunity for independent study and research. May be repeated for credit with a different topic.

499 Internship (1–3)
Practical experience in a position that requires the use of Spanish on a regular basis. Position may be in a variety of fields. Prerequisite: Junior or Senior standing and permission of the department.

MODERN LANGUAGES IN TRANSLATION CHINESE (MLTC)

280 Modern and Contemporary Chinese Society and Culture (3)
This course offers an introduction to the history of China and its contemporary society. Students will gain knowledge about the historical facts, cultural changes, diverse ethnicities, women/gender issues, as well as its unique cultural heritage. Students explore the diverse culture of China while also considering race, gender, and class issues as well as concerns for social justice.

MODERN LANGUAGES IN TRANSLATION SPANISH (MLTS)

135 Women Making Mischief: Theatre and Performance as Protest in the Spanish-Speaking World (3)
What is theatre? How does a theatrical text construct meaning and how is meaning communicated in performance? How can theatre denounce injustice? In this Critical Thinking Seminar we will consider these questions and more as we study the work of contemporary Hispanic women playwrights from Latin America and Spain. We will figuratively travel through time and space in the Spanish-speaking world (including a visit with Latinas in the U.S.) as we examine the works of these dramatists and performers and the ways in which their work highlights and criticizes injustice, violence, and oppression.
MODERN LANGUAGE COURSES (MODL)

445 Teaching Modern Languages in Middle/High School (3)
Introduces students to language acquisition theory and its implications for the classroom. Topics covered include development of student competency in each of the four skills (reading, listening, speaking, writing), the teaching of culture, and the use of authentic materials. This course is organized around the National Standards and includes familiarization with the ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines. Recommended for any language major, especially those considering teaching as a profession, as well as those students considering graduate study. Taught in English. Fall semester only. Prerequisite: EDUC 345 or permission of instructor. (Also listed as EDUC 445.)

DEPARTMENT DESCRIPTION
The Department of Music offers courses to all students and, to its majors, the B.A. in Music and the B.M. in Music Education. A music minor is also available. Saint Mary’s College is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music.

TEACHER PREPARATION
Saint Mary’s College educator preparation program leads students to Indiana P–12 licensure in two areas—Music: Instrumental and Music: Vocal. Both licensure programs require two Indiana CORE Assessment exams.
- (026): Fine Arts—General Music
- And one of the following:
  - (027): Fine Arts—Instrumental Music (for Instrumental licensure)
  - (028): Fine Arts—Vocal Music (for Vocal licensure)

The completion of the music education course work, in conjunction with passing CORE scores, will result in Indiana P–12 music licensure in either Instrumental or Vocal Music. Students can pass all three assessments and be certified for both Vocal and Instrumental Music Indiana licensure. See also: Visual Arts and Music Education section of the Bulletin.

ADVANCED WRITING PROFICIENCY
The Advanced Writing Proficiency in Music will encompass a portfolio of writing samples to include:
1. A research paper written for a Music History class.
2. Another writing assignment of the student’s choice from a music class other than Music History.*
3. The writing component from the Senior Comprehensive.
4. A composition, arrangement, or transcription in computer notation.

*Selected with the approval of the professor teaching the course. Writing samples must be submitted within 4 weeks of the beginning of the semester following the completion of the course.
