

DESCRIPTION

Three sessions will feature discussion on a few pages from the book A Sacred Voice is Calling and will cover faith and self-knowledge, exploring one's gifts and interests through engagement on and off campus, the promise of the liberal arts, the spirituality of Holy Cross, and major discernment.

The program will feature various staff and faculty throughout sharing vocation stories and reflecting on the themes above. Students are highly encouraged to attend all three sessions.

SESSION DATES

Tuesday, Feb. 4, 6-7:30, Stapleton Lounge
Tuesday, Feb. 18, 6-7:30, Rice Commons
Tuesday, March 3, 6-7:30, Rice Commons

CONTACT

Arlene Montevecchio,
amontevecchio@saintmarys.edu
Center for Spirituality
RSVPs required by January 24th

(VOCATION OPERATING IN CAMPUS ENGAGEMENT)

FIND YOUR VOICE!

First year students are invited to a series of three dinner and discussion sessions focused on theological exploration of vocation. All participants will receive a book and journal.