

CENTER FOR SPIRITUALITY
SAINT MARY'S COLLEGE

Where Faith and Reason Meet

The Center for Spirituality shares with the students, faculty, staff, alumnae and friends the mission of Saint Mary's College as a Catholic, liberal arts college for women. The Center sponsors events and programs that explore and celebrate the Christian spiritual inheritance, especially as that tradition speaks to issues facing contemporary women, their families, and friends. It acknowledges with deep appreciation the patronage of the Sisters of the Holy Cross who founded, sponsor, and inspire Saint Mary's College.

The Madeleva Lectures in Spirituality are named to honor Sister M. Madeleva Wolff, CSC. As president of Saint Mary's College, Sister Madeleva inaugurated the Graduate School of Sacred Theology at the College, a unique and pioneering venture that provided graduate theological training to women and lay men from 1943 to 1969.
