

SECTION 2

2. THE GOVERNANCE OF THE COLLEGE

2.1.STATEMENT ON THE CONCEPT OF SHARED GOVERNANCE

The Board of Trustees governs the institution. Any responsibility and authority that any group or individual has is implicitly or explicitly delegated by the Board of Trustees. While the Board of Trustees and the President bear full responsibility for the governance and operation of the College, all members of the College community participate in the governance of the College in accordance with their rights and responsibilities. All members of the College community share responsibility for the governance of the College. The following sections describe the function of each component of the community.

2.2.THE CORPORATION OF SAINT MARY’S COLLEGE

INTRODUCTION

The institution is governed in accordance with the Code of Bylaws of the Corporation of Saint Mary’s College, Notre Dame, which can be viewed at <https://www.saintmarys.edu/code-of-bylaws>

2.3.THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE COLLEGE

2.3.1. OFFICERS OF THE ADMINISTRATION

2.3.1.1. PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE

2.3.1.1.1. APPOINTMENT. The President of the College is appointed by the Board of Trustees of the Corporation of Saint Mary’s College and serves at the pleasure of the Board.

2.3.1.1.2. AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITY. The President is the College’s chief executive officer (CEO) and the chief advisor to the Board. The authority of the President is vested through the Board and includes responsibilities for all College educational and managerial affairs. The President is responsible for leading the College, implementing all Board policies, keeping the Board informed on appropriate matters, consulting with the Board in a timely manner on matters appropriate to its policy making and fiduciary functions, and serving as the College’s key spokesperson. The President has the authority to execute all documents on behalf of the College and the Board consistent with Board policies and the best interests of the College. The President:

2.3.1.1.2.1. is an ex officio voting member of the Board of Trustees and serves ex officio as a member of all Board committees except the Audit, Risk & Legal Committee;

2.3.1.1.2.2. presides or designates the presiding officer at all academic functions and represents the College before the public;

- 2.3.1.1.2.3. serves as the chief liaison officer between the Board of Trustees and the College community. As such, the President receives and transmits all resolutions and petitions affecting the welfare of the College;
- 2.3.1.1.2.4. presents regular reports on the state of the College to the Board of Trustees and to the Academic Leadership Council and such other reports as are requested by the Board of Trustees;
- 2.3.1.1.2.5. recommends, after appropriate consultation, administrative officers for confirmation by the Board of Trustees;
- 2.3.1.1.2.6. informs the Board of Trustees of the number of the faculty members awarded tenure and/or promotion after considering the report of the Committee on Rank and Tenure;
- 2.3.1.1.2.7. appoints, promotes, and dismisses the academic and nonacademic staffs of the College subject to the limitations of budget provisions and college policies, according to the provisions outlined in this manual;
- 2.3.1.1.2.8. designates the duties and functions of other officers and agents of the College, subject to the supervision and direction of the Board of Trustees;
- 2.3.1.1.2.9. makes changes in the administrative structure of the College that are advantageous to the College;
- 2.3.1.1.2.10. appoints committees, delegates authority, assigns responsibility to committees or to individuals as needed;

2.3.1.4.1.1.1. The IRB Chair, who must be a tenured member of the faculty, will be selected by the committee. Faculty members and administrators are nominated by the continuing members of the IRB subject to appointment by the Provost. One faculty at large will be elected by the Faculty. Outside members and consultants are nominated by the IRB subject to appointment by the Provost. While there are no fixed terms on the IRB, appointments should be made to insure both continuity and refreshed membership. In compliance with federal regulations, the IRB will not be single sex (all male or all female) in compositions. If a member of IRB is involved in the research proposal under review, she or he will absent her/himself from the deliberations. Four members from the institution and one outside member are required for full committee reviews. All members of the IRB must undergo designated training.

2.3.1.4.1.2. RESPONSIBILITY

2.3.1.4.1.2.1. The Institutional Review Board:

- 2.3.1.4.1.2.1.1. reviews, approves, or rejects, requires modifications, and monitors all research involving human participants conducted at Saint Mary's College, or by Saint Mary's students or personnel.
- 2.3.1.4.1.2.1.2. ensures that information given to participants as informed consent is in accord with federal guidelines.
- 2.3.1.4.1.2.1.3. approves continuing research projects if a project lasts more than one year and more frequently if needed.
- 2.3.1.4.1.2.1.4. reviews and approves all previously approved research when there are changes in the research protocol and deemed necessary by the investigator.
- 2.3.1.4.1.2.1.5. informs investigators and the Provost of decisions. In case of rejection of a research activity, the IRB shall include in its written response the reasons for this decision, and allow the investigator to respond in person or in writing.
- 2.3.1.4.1.2.1.6. maintains a file of active and past approved and rejected research proposals along with sample consent forms, progress reports, and reports of injuries. All applications and decisions reached on those applications must be kept for a minimum of three years. These files shall be open to inspection by IRB members and appropriate members of Saint Mary's College Administration.
- 2.3.1.4.1.2.1.7. suspends or terminates approval of research that is not being conducted in accordance with the IRB's requirements or that has been associated with unexpected serious harm to participants. If needed, a representative from Student Affairs may be brought in for consultation. Such termination must be communicated, with reasons, to the investigator and the Provost.
- 2.3.1.4.1.2.1.8. keeps minutes of IRB meetings that include records of attendance, actions taken, the vote on each proposal, the basis for requiring changes in or approving research, and a written summary of the discussion of controversies and their resolutions.

2.3.1.4.1.2.1.9. provides education and consultation on request.

2.3.1.4.1.2.2. The Chair:

7. obtain a signed consent form for each individual participant in the study;
8. maintain records of consent forms;
9. resubmit to the IRB for approval any deviations from the approved protocol;

10. submit annually for review any continuing projects;

If, during the course of the research the investigator has any evidence that participants have in any way been harmed as a direct consequence of their participation, or that participation functioned as a contributing fact in producing the harm, or for any other reason, that investigator must:

1. take immediate measures to prevent further harm and seek assistance as needed;
2. notify the Provost and the Chair of the IRB immediately irrespective of the incident. The Provost or the Chair of the IRB may subsequently solicit assistance from appropriate personnel;
3. continue to monitor the participants as necessary;
4. stop data collection from the participants in question and postpone all activities associated with the research project.
5. seek consultation with the IRB as to the continuation of the project.

The principal investigator must keep all research records for a minimum of three years or per federal guidelines. In the case of research involving minors, records must be maintained until those participants reach the age of majority plus two additional years or per federal guidelines. These files should be available for inspection by the IRB or by an administrative person evaluating the IRB.

2.3.1.4.1.2.4. The Supervisor - In the event that a student is a co-investigator, the faculty member is considered the principal investigator and must actively supervise the research and maintain a written record of that supervision.

2.3.1.4.1.2.5. The Institution – The Provost will conduct an annual review of the entire program to insure that proper quality assurance and risk management procedures are being followed.

2.3.1.4.1.3. PROCEDURES

2.3.1.4.1.3.1. The full IRB will meet regularly in the fourth and eleventh week of each semester during which time the IRB will review proposals requiring full review and update the files of currently active projects and review new proposals.

2.3.1.4.1.3.2. There will be three levels of review:
