

External Study Abroad Scholarships

Updated September 2025

The Global Education Office at Saint Mary's College offers information on external resources and helps students apply for external study abroad scholarships.

The Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship (up to $5,000) enables students who have limited financial means to participate in study abroad opportunities worldwide. To be eligible, students must be receiving a Federal Pell Grant at the time of application or provide proof that they will be receiving a Pell Grant during the term of their study abroad program. Qualified students may also apply for the Gilman Critical Language Supplement Scholarship (up to $3,000) or the STEM Supplemental Award (up to $1,000). The Gilman-McCain Scholarship is also available for undergraduate dependents of active or activated U.S. military personnel during the time of application. Please visit the website for more information about deadlines, eligibility, and selection criteria for these awards.

The Fund for Education Abroad provides scholarships to students with financial need who have never studied abroad before and who will be studying abroad for a minimum of two weeks. The minimum award amount is $1,000 with short-term program awards prorated based on the length of the program. Students can receive an award up to $5,000 for a semester-long program or up to $10,000 for an academic year-long program. Please visit the website for more information about deadlines, eligibility, and selection criteria.
